CONGRESS

- John Kennedy – County Comptroller: “Lee’s work in Washington to protect Suffolk County is unrivaled. At the height of the pandemic, he secured $257 million in federal funding for Suffolk County government through the CARES Act, and continues to fight to provide relief for local governments with budgets that were greatly impacted by coronavirus.”
- Judy Pascale – County Clerk: “I see no better representative for the 1st Congressional District than Lee Zeldin. He is someone who consistently works across the aisle to get things done for Suffolk County. At the height of the pandemic, we saw how he worked with County Executive Steve Bellone and the White House to secure more than 1.2 million masks, gowns and other PPE to protect our local healthcare and other front line workers.”
- Rudy Sunderman – County Legislator, 3rd District: “Lee is a dedicated father, husband and public servant who cares deeply about our community. I expect nothing less from a fellow William Floyd graduate, and look forward to seeing the great work he continues to do in Congress next cycle.”

He was instrumental in bringing in billions of dollars of development funds to the Brookhaven National Laboratory complex. The particle accelerator will provide hundreds of jobs and lead to valuable scientific and medical research. He took the lead on securing over a million items of valuable PPE during the peak of the Coronavirus outbreak here in Suffolk County to make sure that all our front line workers and seniors were safe. Congressman Zeldin led the fight to reduce threshold eligibility for participation in the Municipal Lending Facility providing Suffolk County with critical access for financial note activity. He consistently demonstrates a keen ability to identify the needs of his constituents, and then delivers. He truly is the voice of Suffolk County at a national level.”*

- Rob Trotta – County Legislator, 13th District: “Congressman Lee Zeldin is the kind of leader we need most right now. A leader who gets things done and does not allow politics to stand in the way of serving the needs of his community. He continues to be a true champion for the people of Suffolk County, as evidenced by the hundreds of millions of federal dollars he delivered to support local residents and businesses struggling during the COVID-19 pandemic. We need Lee Zeldin to be our voice in Washington, now more than ever.”

- Ken LaValle – State Senate, 1st District: “I am proud to endorse Congressman Lee Zeldin for re-election. It has been a pleasure to work with the Congressman over the years as my intern, my colleague in the State Senate and now as our representative in Washington. From his exemplary constituent service, to securing a two billion dollar infrastructure project for Brookhaven National Lab to his remarkable help throughout the pandemic, Lee Zeldin has delivered for our region. Congressman Zeldin has my full support in November because we need a champion in Congress fighting for the needs of Long Island residents.”

- Joe Destefano – Assemblyman, 3rd District: “At the height of the pandemic, Congressman Zeldin secured PPE to protect our frontline workers and first responders as they continued to put their lives on the line for us. He is a staunch advocate for our community and we need to re-elect him in November.”

He is a veteran, a loving father and husband and my good friend. I support his re-election enthusiastically.”*
